To Whom it Concerns:

Ray and Gail Hubbartt have been professional, knowledgeable, courteous, and helpful from the start. When I first decided to purchase a Rottweiler pup, I was in a summer study abroad program. I contacted Ray and Gail by e-mail and informed them of my interest. Fortunately, they had just had a litter of seven males.

As I was overseas at the time, I faced the challenge of selecting a puppy from the litter without actually seeing it. I informed Ray and Gail that I was looking for a confident puppy with a gentle and affectionate disposition. They assured me that they would use their experience to select the puppy whose temperament best suited my needs. They couldn't have chosen a better puppy for me. "Oscar" has been one of the most wonderful dogs that I've ever met. Everyone that comes across him comments on his sweet disposition.

Throughout my time overseas, Ray and Gail kept me well informed of the litter's growth by e-mailing weekly photos. As the puppies individual personalities developed, they kept me up to date on which of the puppies seemed to have the characteristics for which I was looking.

Since I brought Oscar home, Ray and Gail have continually shown an interest in his development. They keep in close contact, and are available if I have any questions or concerns. Not only are they wonderful breeders, they are also wonderful people. I can't thank them enough for joy they've brought to my life.

Sincerely,
